Filed: January 24, 2025

Bryonna Gang, Kraus Law Group, LLC, Chicago, IL, for Petitioner.

Alexis B. Babcock, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On December 15, 2020, Gabriel Flores filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a Table injury – a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) - as a result of his receipt of the flu vaccine on September 27, 2019. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters. Because the parties could not informally resolve the issue of damages, they were ordered to file briefs setting forth their respective arguments and were notified that I would resolve this dispute via an expedited “Motions Day” hearing, which took place on January 24, 2025.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner seeks an award of $85,000.00 in compensation for Petitioner's actual pain and suffering, while Respondent recommends an award of $60,000.00. (Pain and suffering was the only element of damages in dispute at the hearing).³

After listening to the arguments of both sides, I issued an oral ruling on damages constituting my findings of fact and conclusions of law, pursuant to Section 12(d)(3)(A), at the conclusion of the January 24, 2025 hearing. An official recording of the proceeding was taken by a court reporter, although a transcript has not yet been filed in this matter. I hereby fully adopt and incorporate that oral ruling as officially recorded. As discussed during my oral ruling, in another recent decision I discussed at length the legal standard to be considered in determining damages and prior SIRVA compensation within SPU. I fully adopt and hereby incorporate my prior discussion in Sections I and II of Yodowitz v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 21-0370V, 2024 WL 4284926, at *1-3 (Fed. Cl. Aug. 23, 2024) to the instant ruling and decision. Additionally, the official recording of my oral ruling includes my discussion of various comparable cases as well as specific facts relating to Petitioner's medical history and experience that further informed my decision awarding damages herein.

Based on my consideration of the complete record as a whole and for the reasons discussed in my oral ruling, pursuant to Section 12(d)(3)(A), I find that $72,500.00 represents a fair and appropriate amount of compensation for Petitioner's actual pain and suffering.⁴ I also find that Petitioner is entitled to $684.40 in actual unreimbursable expenses.

Accordingly, I award Petitioner a lump sum of $73,184.40 (representing an award of $72,500.00 for pain and suffering and $684.40 for unreimbursed expenses) to be paid through an ACH deposit to Petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.
